"Zuccheus stood forth and said unto the Lord: "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor, and if I tave done wrong to any man I restore fourfold."

The plate was only four paws away. What the President found in his pocket book was one fifty-dollar note and a ten dollar greenback—nothing smaller. What Mr. Blaide found was two ten-dollar notes—nothing smaller. To put in a nickel or a dime was not to be WHOLESALE & RETAIL GROCERS thought of. To give ten dollars was looked at Windom sitting there calmly with his dollar note in hand. He shook his head. "Charge them, that are rich in this exploration or consideration. With a smile of commisseration at each other, and something like glee on Windom's placid countenance, the President and Secretary of State each planked down his ten-dollar note for "the poor of this congregation." And the worst of it is, said one of the party afterward, that the Lord would probably give them credit only for the dollar or two which they intended to give.

the fire-baptized people separated.

The two workers are enjoying the hospitality of Amos Musser, a well-to-do farmer. Musser is so taken with the fire baptized doctrines that he be lleved he could fly by faith, and in the finery and silk dresses worn by women, and one young woman was so worked up over their statements that she put all of her good dresses in the fire. Believing their assertions that hogs are unclean, Musser has disposed of his large herd. The evangelists claim to cure diseases, and tell their audiences anything can be accomplished by faith. This doctrine was given a shock Saturday evening, when the evangelists prayed that a neighbor would bring over a supply of buttermilk, which was not forthcoming.

At a meeting on Sunday in Lehman's Grove Evangelist Heosell told a large audience that he was a poor farmer who had been baptized by fire. He had said he believed a Christian should resemble in activity a rushing, roaring mountain torrent, and he endeavored to observe this belief in a literal way by jumping

Remarkable Rescue. Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure he. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and, after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was .- Free trial bottles
